Business is rushing in the freight shed at St. Johnsbury, 21 men having been employed there for the past few weeks. Much freight is being shipped out as well as being brought in.

Twenty-nine boys and girls have applied for trees in the camp grove at Lyndon and are to make maple sugar scientifically under the direction of the promoters of the Boys and Girls' Home Project club. They have procured their own sap spouts and buckets.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stoddard celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary March 14 at their home in Barnet. They were married in McIndoes, lived for a time in Waterford and for the past 15 years in Barnet. Mr. Stoddard is a veteran of the Civil war. He has been an invalid since 1914. They received over $75 in money.

To see how soon the boy scouts of St. Albans could mobilize if wanted for anything, they were called by telephone without previous warning, and within 12 minutes from the time the lington, following an operation. Keep Armories for the Guard.

There is a bill before the legislature that would cause a part of the space in the state armory at Newport, when it is constructed, to be used for the municipal offices of that community. The Messenger does not believe that this is a sound proposition. It is the claim of those who ask for the construction of local building to permit of a combination of the civil and military. The purright away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrivel from that instant—then it loosens and falls right off.

There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It" No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gets-It" does away forever with the use of salves that irritate, bandages that make a bundle of your toe, plasters that half do the work, knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more digaring or cutting.

"Gets-It" is able everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
